

The Morki folk theatre – 50

The Morki theatre – the heart of Morki people

They say, the people of Morki district are very hospitable and talented.

Famous poets, writers, singers, actors were born in this district.

Workers, clerks, veterans, who played and are playing in the folk theatre are also known not only in this area but also in our republic.

The history

- In 1959 L.Lavrenteyv finished the Leningrad Theatrical Institute and founded the folk theatre.
- It should be underlined that the actors were clerks, who worked in the offices; workers, who worked in the factory and the veterans of war and labour.

The first play “ Udyr kumyl”

- Then the head of the theatre became Anna Vasileyvna Yakusheva.
- After graduating the college of culture in Yoshkar-Ola, she returned to Morki as a producer.
- From 1975 since nowadays she rules this theatre.

- People see such dramas, comedies as “Oksa tul”, “Yanlyk Paset”, “Oreng melna”, “Morko sem”, “Salika”, “Muksh otar”, “Kache – vlak’ with pleasure.
- The performances are known in Narva and Bryansk, Syktyvkar and Ivanovo and in many towns, cities of our country.
